Employee consultation

Because of their daily contact with the workplace, employees have the most detailed knowledge of the work processes and the potential hazards in the workplace.

To identify and eliminate potential workplace hazards The Kinder Garden will encourage employees to report any matters in respect of workplace health and safety to their Authorised Provider/Nominated Supervisor and the Health and Safety representative.

To facilitate the exchange of information, the Health and Safety representative will review, at the regular staff meeting, the health and safety performance of the service and raise any matters or issues on behalf of employees.

The Health and Safety Representative may be the Nominated Supervisor or staff member elected to that role.

Staff Awareness of Work Health and Safety

The Kinder Garden will ensure that all its employees have a sound knowledge and awareness of the principles and practices of Work Health and Safety.

To achieve this outcome, The Kinder Garden will:

- b. provide opportunities for staff to attend Work Health and Safety training and

Procedures for identification and assessment of workplace hazards and risks

The Kinder Garden expects all its employees to take an active role in identifying situations with the potential to cause harm or injury in the service. The Kinder Garden through its Authorised Provider/Nominated Supervisor will assist employees to identify potential hazards by:

- a. encouraging all employees to read publications and visit websites, including relevant codes of practice;
- b. requesting the health and safety representative or his/her deputy to periodically check records of injuries and accidents which have occurred in the workplace, and disseminate this information to all Kinder Garden employees; and
- c. ensuring that a report is prepared after an inspection, which identifies any issues indicating a lack of a safe system of work or the need for more attention to the way health and safety is managed. This report is to be tabled at the monthly staff meeting.

Procedures for elimination and control of workplace hazards

Where a health and safety inspection has identified a potential hazard, the health and safety representative with the Authorised Provider/Nominated Supervisor may take immediate remedial action to eliminate or control the hazard. Where possible, the decision on what to do about a potential hazard should be made in consultation with the employees concerned. Such remedial actions are to be detailed in the inspection report.
