Implementation

The Working With Children Check is a prerequisite for paid and unpaid child-related work.

Approved Providers must:

- register with the Working with Children Check (see <http://www.kidsguardian.nsw.gov.au/working-with-children/working-with-children-check/child-related-employers> for steps on how to register as an employer) and identify two nominated contact people within the service who will be contacted by the Office of the Children's Guardian if a staff member becomes barred
- identify all paid and unpaid workers in child-related work at the service
- identify the roles and individuals to whom an exemption from the Working With Children Check applies
  - eg children (under the age of 18)
  - eg parent/guardian/close relative volunteer at the service
  - eg administrative, clerical, maintenance or ancillary staff not ordinarily involving contact with children for extended periods
- verify every Working With Children Check status online (the Approved Provider must NOT rely on a notification or email from an employee or volunteer containing an application or clearance number)
- ensure current workers apply for the Working with Children Check during the phase-in period of 1 April 2017 to 31 March 2018 (as per the Phase-in Schedule for Existing Workers)
- remove barred workers from child-related work

The Approved Provider must keep a record of Working with Children Checks including:

- Full name (including first, middle and last name)
- Date of birth
- WWC number

- Verification date (the date you verified them)
- Verification outcome (clearance, barred, interim barred or not found)
- Expiry date (when the WWC number expires)
- Status of the worker (paid or volunteer)

The Office of the Children's Guardian has a record keeping template on its website – see http://www.kidsguardian.nsw.gov.au/ArticleDocuments/191/WWCC\_Record\_keeping\_template.pdf.aspx

If the Approved Provider or nominated contact person becomes aware that a current employee or volunteer has become barred (or has an interim bar), you must immediately remove them from child-related work. It does not matter whether they are paid or unpaid; supervised or non-supervised.

The Approved Provider/Nominated Supervisor will ensure that this policy is maintained and implemented at all times.
